

Calling all young artists! Join our Chinese New Year Online Art Show and be entered into a prize draw!

Why do we see so much red around at Chinese New Year and why is it so NOISY?! The ancient Story of Nian the monster tells us the answers.

Using this story as inspiration, send us your artistic creations! They will be posted on our website during the Year of the Ox. Plus, every participant will be entered into a prize draw to win an exclusive Chinese New Year-themed prize.

Here's what to do:

1. Watch a video retelling of the Story of Nian. You can also read the story here.
2. Create a piece of art inspired by the story. A painting, picture, comic, poem, model, movie, photo, song, origami, craft ... anything!
3. Send a photo or file of your creation to: education@vancouverchinesegarden.com. Make sure you have an adult's permission to do this. Don't forget to tell us your name and age.
4. We will post your art on our website! Look out for it from March and all throughout 2021 - the Year of the Ox.

DR. SUN YAT-SEN
CLASSICAL CHINESE
GARDEN

Send a downloadable file or photo of the artwork by February 28th 2021. Do not mail the original. By sending us your work you are giving us permission to post it on our website and social media feeds. We will not post any personal information other than the artist's name and age.

Questions? Please contact education@vancouverchinesegarden.com

<https://vancouverchinesegarden.com/events/chinese-new-year-2021-program/>